

Plea Agreements

Most criminal cases are resolved by plea agreement. Last minute plea agreements pose a significant challenge for any judge managing a busy trial docket. For that reasons, Judge Brailsford expects that all plea negotiations will have been completed prior to the time of the Trial Readiness Conference, which is typically scheduled two weeks before trial.