General Order # 120

This matter coming before the Court upon motion of the Clerk of Court who has indicated that a six month term of service has caused an undue hardship on certain members of the public who serve on jury duty, and

The Court being informed that a shorter term of jury service will reduce the number of excuses and deferments for jury duty, and

The Court being interested in experimenting with a shorter term of service,

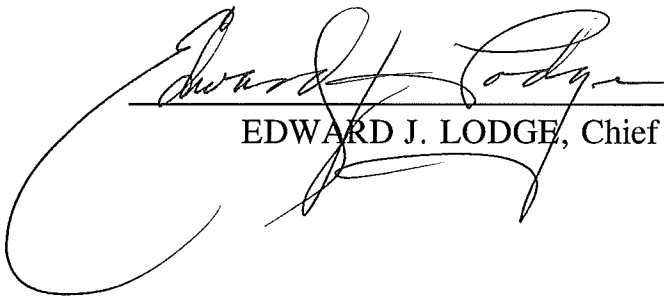

NOW THEREFORE, the Plan for the Random Selection of Grand Jurors, adopted by General Order 67 on August 24, 1990, and amended by General Orders 74, 82 and 93, is hereby amended as follows:

In Section U, Obligation to Serve and Term of Service, page 12, the first paragraph is amended to read as follows:

“When summoned to serve as a juror, every person shall be obliged to serve unless determined to be disqualified, exempt, excluded, or entitled to be excused. Failure to appear as directed will be subject to the penalties set forth in 28 U.S.C. § 1864(b). Petit jurors shall serve a term not to exceed six months. The grand jurors shall serve for a term not in excess of twelve (12) months....”

This General Order supersedes General Order 74, adopted on September 19, 1991.

Dated this 19th day of October, 1995.
